

The Jewish Values Auction™

by Elaine S. Silver

edited by Nina Gelman-Gans

The Jewish Values Auction is an exciting, thought-provoking, interactive values game which helps parents and children articulate their strongest family values in a Jewish context. Each family, team, or individual receives a small inheritance in play money, a list of Jewish historical figures, and their corresponding value. Each team must decide which figures are most meaningful to them and decide how much they want to bid in order to win their desired attributes. This program is certain to inspire new conversations between parent

Winner of the
1997 Creative Teaching
Award from the Center for Jewish Educational Resources of Rockland
County, NY!

Topic: Jewish history, Jewish values

Target Audience: Can be used in the classroom, for adults only, or as a parent-child family education program. Children ages 4-9 will require parent involvement.

Time Frame: A group of 30 families will need 1-2 hours.

Overview: The process of evaluating attributes and allocating resources allows participants to prioritize their values and learn about Jewish historical figures.

Goals:

- ☆ To increase knowledge of Jewish history
- ☆ To articulate personal and family values, and
- ☆ To have enjoyable Jewish time together.

Inside this copy-pack:

Pre-Program Preparation	2
Program Lesson Plan	3
Supplemental Activities	4
Alternate Program: Values Mixer	5
Program Flyer	6
Auction Forms	7-8
Biographies	9-15
Award Certificate	16
Pitome Value Checks	17
Program Evaluation	18

Special Supplement:
Jewish Family Times™
for Jewish Values

Notes

	Personality	Value	Budget	Paid
1	Daughters of Zelophocnad	Pursuers of Justice— Tzedek, Tzedek, Tirdof
2	Ezekiel	Hope— Tikvah
3	Beruriah	Learnedness— Talmud Torah
4	Doña Gracia	Generosity— Nedivut
5	Eliezer Ben-Yehuda	Linguistic Ability— Mechayeh HaLashon Ivrit
6	Bobbie Rosenfeld	Athletic Ability— Rav Koach

Preview Copy

Made especially for <site name> of <your fair city>